COMPLAINT

The Americans for Legal Immigration PAC is a Section 527 organization under various campaign finance laws, and was required to report all campaign contributions to the Federal Election Commission as required by the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 ("the Act") and other federal campaign finance statutes and the code of federal regulations (CFR Title 11).

According to Exhibit A, ALIPAC's report of receipts and disbursements through November 27, 2006, ALIPAC made cash contribution(s) of $1,500 to the Committee to Elect John Jacob.

However, in Exhibit B, the contribution report of the Committee to Elect John Jacob, lists two donations of $1,000 each, for a total of $2,000. ALIPAC failed to submit accurate reports as required by the Act.

Additionally, ALIPAC operates a web site that receives very heavy internet traffic. For the month of October, 2006, ALIPAC was projecting over 2,500,000 web views on their web site, in an announcement posted on the web site. Exhibit D lists the candidates endorsed by ALIPAC who received in-kind contributions from the web site, and Exhibit E is the announcement about monthly web views, posted on the web site.

None of the in-kind support from the ALIPAC web site is reported on any campaign finance reports either from ALIPAC or any of their endorsed candidates. Additionally, of the $46,143 in disbursements, upon information and belief at least a portion of this expense resulted in similar in-kind contributions to ALIPAC's endorsed candidates, such as travel expenses for Mr. Gheen to speak in support of endorsed candidates, telephone calls, etc. The ALIPAC is neither a media organization nor an individual blogger under the Act and the Commission's internet guidelines.

Exhibit E is a fund raising e-mail sent to over 7,000 individuals on behalf of ALIPAC endorsed candidates. There was no in-kind contributions reported by either ALIPAC or any ALIPAC endorsed candidates for the cost of equipment, software, etc. required to distribute this e-mail, as required by the Commission.

□ Posted: Mon Oct 23, 2006 10:04 am Post subject: Getting our ALIPAC team  quote together and setting new records!

Supporters of ALIPAC:

We have 15 days till election day.

Please visit ALIPAC often over these final days to make sure you have the latest information.

Also, we need you to focus on anything you can do to help with the elections everyday.

We need everyone working together as a team and taking actions on their own to promote our success.

Also, the next 8 days will be very important because ALIPAC may set a new all time web traffic record for this month.

At the time of this posting (Monday Oct 23), we are at 1,459,567 page views at www.alipac.us for the month.

It would be great news for us to set a new all time web traffic record on the eve of the elections. This will happen if we pass the current record of 2,532,079 page views set in May of 2006!

To help us set a new record this month and to have maximum impact on the elections, please consider the following actions.

27044183257

1. Please visit www.alipac.us everyday and spend as much time on the site and on the volunteer efforts as possible. Make ALIPAC your base of operations as you work to support our endorsed campaigns.

2. Read the homepage news and the articles in the News by ALIPAC Activists section in the Discussion Groups each day and post comments.

3. Make sure you have reviewed all of the information found in the ALIPAC Action Panel on the top blue tool bar so you can share this info with others.

4. Check the National Candidate Endorsements section each day for updates. Review this information and the blacklists for your area and spread the word.

5. Send e-mails to friends explaining to them how important this year's elections are and how we need Americans working together on these elections to protect our nation from illegal immigration. Send them our way and help us get them active. New supporters are asked to sign up for our e-mail alerts, as volunteers, and as contributors.

6. Place links on other websites and in other online forums showing people the way to www.ALIPAC.us Post links to important articles on our homepage you think others should read. Post links to our candidate endorsement section to increase visibility.

7. Check the website traffic levels often to see how we are doing by clicking on the blue number (26,528,161) in the box on the bottom left titled Site Traffic. You will need to click on Detailed Statistics to see how we are doing each day.

We want to set a new record and we want to build our online team up as much as possible for these last two weeks.

We hope to see you here often and we hope to see you taking action.

We need all of the great citizen activists we can get on the ALIPAC team for this final push!

Yours in the cause,

William Gheen

Supporters of ALIPAC:

Who wins a campaign is decided by who raises and spends the most money approximately 94% of the time. Our side can win with less money as we face the millions of dollars the Open Borders Lobby aka US Chamber of Commerce is pumping in to their candidates.

We can win with less money because 80% of the public supports our side!

However, both contributions and volunteers are needed on our road to victory. The amount of time you collectively volunteer and contribute will decide many of these races.

The decision of who will win is in your hands and it is based on how many of you respond with your time and your money to support our candidates.

Time+Money X's (number of supporters) ='s VICTORY

VOLUNTEERS

Please locate the campaigns ALIPAC has endorsed in your state and visit their websites. ALIPAC supporters are asked to immediately volunteer to the ENDORSED campaigns you like that are closest to you.

Campaigns need help distributing yard signs, walking door to door, making phone calls, assembling letters, letters to the editor, and so on.

It does not matter if you have never volunteered before. Most campaigns are set up where anyone can help and they will gladly give you easy to follow instructions. Your time as a volunteer can bring many voters to our candidates.

ALL ALIPAC VOLUNTEERS ARE ASKED TO IMMEDIATELY DEPLOY.

Let them know that ALIPAC sent you and you are there because of the candidate's stance on illegal immigration. Many of you are already deployed and we salute those of you willing to join our efforts.

CONTRIBUTIONS

If any of our supports think that this battle can be won without money, you are in for a rude awakening.

While our candidates can win with less money due to the power of our issue, they must receive funds to prevail.

Please locate the campaigns in your state and speak with your family about how much you can contribute. Please try to contribute something to each endorsed campaign in your state.

CONTRIBUTIONS SHOULD BE MAILED EXPRESS MAIL OR MADE THROUGH THE CAMPAIGN WEBSITES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Many campaigns are making tough decisions about what they can and cannot afford to do to reach out to voters in these final days. Any contributions made after Friday of this coming week will be appreciated but less likely to turn into direct voter contact efforts.

For each $100 you contribute to a campaign, that is another group of voters that will hear from our candidates.

Many of us are speaking with our families and making major sacrifices from our personal budgets to give money directly to the campaigns.

There are over 7,000 people receiving this email. Imagine the huge financial and volunteer impact we can make if most of you respond!

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT NEW CANDIDATES ARE BEING ADDED TO OUR ENDORSEMENTS LIST EACH DAY AS OUR VOLUNTEER RESEARCHERS SCREEN THESE CAMPAIGNS TO MEET YOUR APPROVAL AND THEIR ALIGNMENT WITH ALIPAC's Platform.

Enter the fray today as a contributor and volunteer via our Endorsement list.

COMPLAINT

The Americans for Legal Immigration PAC is a Section 527 organization under various campaign finance laws.

Exhibit A is the most recent FEC summary of ALIPAC finances for 2005. According to this summary ALIPAC raised $44,575 in individual contributions in 2006, but contributed only $1,500 of this to candidates. Only 3% of funds raised went to candidates; the rest for salaries, travel expenses, Wall Street Journal subscription, etc. It is apparent that contributors were defrauded, believing that their contributions would be used to help candidates in their elections, while nearly all funds went to pay salaries.

In my opinion and belief, ALIPAC defrauded contributors by representing in numerous communications that ALIPAC is a PAC intended to elect candidates, when in actuality ALIPAC intended to fund salaries, etc. with contributions and very little for candidates.

Exhibit B is ALIPAC's on-line store in which ALIPAC branded merchandise is sold. There are numerous references to the on-line store on ALIPAC's main web site. However, there is no accounting for the on-line store's finances in any of their FEC reports. In my opinion and belief, ALIPAC merchandise sales are being diverted for the personal benefit of ALIPAC's leadership, contrary to State and Federal laws.

Additionally, according to ALIPAC's annual 2005 report, ALIPAC received $1,317.79 from the Salvation Army on August 26, 2005. However, the Salvation Army is an IRS recognized charity, and upon information and belief it is unlawful for a PAC to accept contributions from an IRS recognized charity, and for charities to contribute to PACs.

This letter is a response to the instructions from your office for us to answer the false charges made by Robert T. Quasius of Marshall, MN to your office on Jan. 10, 2006. (Reference MUR # 5896)

In his cover letter, Mr. Quasius falsely claims that his formal complaint is "for violations of campaign finance laws." Mr. Quasius has no evidence to offer that ALIPAC has violated any laws and ALIPAC makes every effort to maintain our good standing with the FEC and all state and federal agencies.

Mr. Robert T. Quasius makes three claims. The following as a response invalidating each:

Allegation #1:

Mr. Quasius claims that ALIPAC has "failed to submit accurate reports as required" because "According to Exhibit A, ALIPAC's report of receipts and disbursements through November 27, 2006, ALIPAC made cash contribution(s) of $1,500 to the Committee to Elect John Jacob.

A review of ALIPAC's FEC reports indicate that we made only one donation of $1,000 to the Committee to Elect John Jacob on 6/26/2006.

Furthermore, a review of our banking records (6/1/2006 through 11/27/2006) indicates that only one contribution was made to the Committee to Elect John Jacob on 6/26/2006 in the amount of $1,000. Our banking records and FEC reports are accurate, and agree with each other. We will gladly give an FEC representative access to our account for verification purposes.

Allegation #2:

Mr. Quasius claims that we failed to list our endorsement list placed on our website at www.alipac.us as in kind contributions for the over 100 candidates endorsed there.

We have been told on several occasions by the FEC and Office of General Counsel that placing our endorsements on our website and encouraging people on our e-mail list to support them does not have to be listed as an In-Kind contribution as long as there are no extra costs associated with listing those we endorse. We confirmed this to be the case again today with a call to the office of General Counsel to make sure that our current reports that are being prepared will be accurate and reflect this understanding of the FEC guidelines.

Our endorsement page and e-mails on this matter only constitute a very small fraction of our online operations and the list was placed in public view as a normal part of our operations without extra expenditures. No additional costs were incurred by us in either compensated man-hours or service provider fees.

Allegation #3:

Mr. Quasius claims that our organization made expenditures for travel and long distance calls to support candidates that were not listed as in-kind contributions. He provides no evidence of this claim.

ALIPAC made no travel expenditures or phone calls at our expense to communicate our support of individual candidates to the public or voters. All travel expenses were for summits, conferences, debates, Congressional hearings, and other similar events, none of which were campaign-related.

Our calls were mostly answering media inquiries and to inform the campaigns of our endorsements.

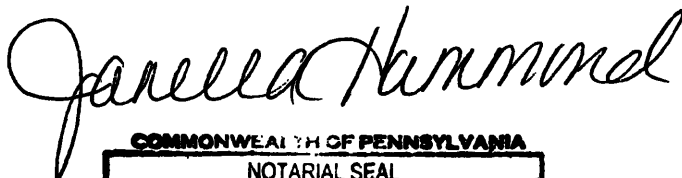

We hope that these explanations satisfy your investigations, and that you will dismiss Mr. Robert (Bob) Quasius's complaint (MUR #5896). We also respectfully request a letter clearing us of these allegations, or other appropriate documentation showing this complaint as unfounded and dismissed.

We stand ready to assist your investigation anyway we can as we appreciate the public service your office offers to the citizens of America.

Sincerely,

Daryl Jurbala

Subject: Amended Complaint, MUR 5896

Enclosed is a formal complaint against the Americans for Legal Immigration PAC (ALIPAC) for violation of campaign finance laws.

This complaint amends my earlier complaints dated January 3, 2007 and January 19, 2007, and brings additional violations of the law to your attention.

I also have clarified two items from my previous complaints.

Feel free to contact me (above) if you need further information.

Yours truly,

Robert T. Quasius

COMPLAINT

The Americans for Legal Immigration PAC is a Section 527 organization under various campaign finance laws.

Upon information and belief, based upon media reports and the absence of office expenses in disclosures, ALIPAC has always operated out of a home office, in the home of ALIPAC President William Gheen in Raleigh, North Carolina. The home office likely includes a full set of office equipment, such as a personal computer, supplies, desk, etc.

None of ALIPAC's FEC disclosures report any in-kind contributions from Mr. Gheen, reflecting the value of facilities provided by Mr. Gheen. Mr. Gheen is not a volunteer, since he has received a monthly salary since June 2004, and the time usage is likely much more than the commission's standards for incidental. Moreover, the value of the use of the home likely exceeds the $5,000 annual individual contribution limit for individuals.

In my original complaint, dated January 3, 2007, I identified a discrepancy between reported ALIPAC contributions to candidates, and reported contributions received from ALIPAC in candidate FEC disclosures. I am now satisfied there is no discrepancy.

The discrepancy was identified based upon FEC on-line summaries. After making the complaint, I later compared images of the actual reports filed by ALIPAC and candidate committees. I believe the discrepancy resulted from sloppy handwriting in a date (either 6/20/2006 or 6/26/2006) for a $1,000 contribution to the John Jacob Committee, which led it to be displayed twice on-line, which was misleading.

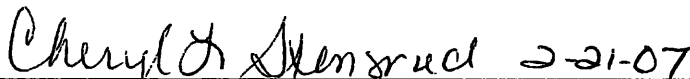

Also, I no longer believe profits may have been diverted from the ALIPAC on-line store to individual use. After making the complaint, I received information from someone who operates a similar store, and the item pricing at ALIPAC's store is such that no profits are earned, so there are no profits that could be diverted. However, I believe there is a reporting violation even if there was no profit, because no disbursements or receipts from the store were reported by ALIPAC.

Subject: Additional Evidence Related to MUR 5896

In support of my complaint about fraudulent fund raising by ALIPAC, enclosed are copies of additional fund raising e-mail from ALIPAC, which demonstrate contributors were often misled about the purpose of fund raising campaigns. These communications were all obtained from ALIPAC's e-mail list server, at: <http://lists.alipac.us/cgi-bin/dada/mail.cgi/archive/ALI/>

ALIPAC's FEC disclosures show William Gheen has been paid a salary since mid-2004. During the 2005-2006 election cycle, most of ALIPAC's contributions went to fund William Gheen's salary and travel expenses. Only $1,500, or 3%, of $45,000 raised in 2005-2006 were reported as candidate contributions.

The April 1, 2005 e-mail states that no one at ALIPAC receives a salary, and that funds were needed to build "candidate campaign reserves." The February 16, 2006 claims building "candidate campaign reserves" but nothing about salaries.

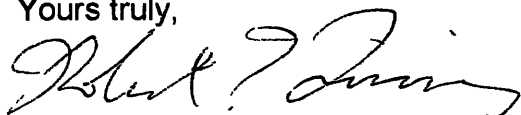

The June 22, 2006 fund raising e-mail states funds are needed to make a contribution to the John Jacob campaign. Considerably more funds were previously raised for "candidate campaign reserves" than contributed.

The June 30, 2005 fund raising e-mail states funds are needed to fund long distance charges, postage, bandwidth, advertising, and office materials, but fails to mention that most of ALIPAC's spending is for salaries.

The August 29, 2006 e-mail states that funds are needed to support candidates, and again fails to mention that most of ALIPAC's spending is for salaries.

Feel free to contact me (above) if you need further information.

Robert T. Quasius

Friends:

Americans for Legal Immigration PAC needs your support today. We are launching a multi-faceted fund raiser that will run till the end of April. We need our online friends that have not contributed to join and contribute today.

We need funds for several reasons. It is time for us to start building our campaign contribution reserves for candidates that stand with us in the 2006 elections. We will carefully screen candidates and allow our members to voice their opinions on which campaigns we endorse and contribute to. Those that support illegal immigration and open borders will be weighing in with millions of dollars.
Americans must come to the table if we are to prevail.

ALIPAC also needs immediate contributions to help with our broader fund raising programs and membership drives. We have ordered thousands of pieces of letterhead and envelopes. We need money for postage to reach out to others that are not with us online yet.
Won't you help us? For each dollar you contribute, we can reach out to three other people via snail mail.

ALIPAC's web traffic has exploded. We received almost 700,000 page reads in March and that exceeds our total web traffic combined for the prior five months. If our popularity continues to grow at this rate, we will need thousands of dollars for a new high capacity server that can handle the traffic. Please help us to continue providing this information to more people around the nation.

Our six executive officers are talented professionals. They work long hours on top of their existing jobs to make ALIPAC a reality. At this time, there are no salaries at ALIPAC. I personally am working a total of 70+ hours per week. We appreciate our volunteers and activists. Won't you support our work by contributing today?

Our friends at Team America PAC, 9/11 Families for a Secure America, Vietnamese for Fair Immigration, and some of the Minutemen in Utah are already backing this campaign.

Team America says that Open Borders PACs like these below have started pumping over $100,000 into the Cannon campaign due to his pro amnesty stance.

The Bush administration is rushing in to help Cannon because he was the point man in the House for the Guest Worker Amnesty push. Many of these PACs are the same PACs that tried to defeat Arizona's Proposition 200.

Home Depot, Inc;
United Parcel Services Inc; Wal-Mart Stores, Inc; Walt Disney Productions;
Independent Community Bankers of America; National Restaurant Association;
Hotel PAC; National Roofing Contractors, US Chamber, American Express;
California Farm Bureau; Dairy Farmers; International Council of Shopping Centers; National Rural Letter Carriers; and Western Growers

We need to help John Jacob bring Cannon home. He needs money, volunteers, and votes on the ground in Utah! Support him directly or through ALIPAC.

More information to follow Friday Morning.

Extended to Sept. 11 ::

Dada Mail » Americans for Legal Immigration » Archives » ALIPAC
Fund Raiser Update. Extended to Sept. 11

Date: August 29th, 2006

Supporters of ALIPAC:

Thank you to all of you that have responded to our August fund raiser for ALIPAC. We have received a good response with several larger donations and many small donations.

While ALIPAC was designed to run off of small donations, we have reached a real cross roads. The demands on our organization far exceed our resources in labor and funds. We are in a constant state of triage and backlog doing our best to "Do what we can" in this struggle. Our projects are meeting with success, but we have not been aggressive in asking you for financial contributions.

Much of our mail has been delayed due to the time required for data entry and mail assembly on top of the many other projects running at ALIPAC. We are about 30% below where we need to be on this fund raiser due to the delay with the mail and the frequency of large donors is too low.

We are extending the fund raiser to Sept. 11, 2006 which is ALIPAC's two year anniversary. It is important that we hear back from you before then.

Your financial support is critical to our ability to continue and our ability to accomplish our primary goal of creating a national voter guide and supporting candidates that need our help. Working together, we have established one of the most effective national organizations fighting illegal immigration. We need your support to be able to grow and meet more of the needs placed on us.

Please discuss this effort with your families and see what you can do. While $25 and $50 contributions really add up, we must locate more donors that are willing to give $100, $250, $500, or $1,000 or more.

We will do our best to get the remaining fund raising letters out by the end of this week and to get volunteers on the phones to call you and ask for donations.

Please take what action you can today to contribute to ALIPAC online or through the mail.

Your support is critical to our efforts and greatly appreciated.
